Palm Beach Synagogue

started out from humble beginnings twelve years ago. Since then, under the leadership of Rabbi Moshe & Dinie Scheiner, the Synagogue has grown by leaps and bounds, and has become a vibrant and celebrated Synagogue renowned throughout South Florida.

In August of 2000, PBS moved into their current home at 120 North County Road. They have since undergone two additional expansions. In March of 2004, they celebrated the tenth anniversary of the synagogue honoring their Rabbi & Rebbetzin at their Gala Dinner held at the Flagler Museum.

The Palm Beach Synagogue attracts visitors from all over the world. It has hosted the Chief Rabbis of Israel, prominent scholars, Israeli leaders, many dignitaries and esteemed guests.

It serves as a bastion of Yiddishkeit and spirituality, on an island whose natural beauty and serenity only enhance the richness of Shabbat and Prayer.
